Don Jans: Author of My Grandchildren's America

Will it still be the land of the free and the home of the brave?

Throughout the election cycle of 2008, then presidential candidate Barack Obama claimed that under his leadership America would begin a "FUNDAMENTAL TRANSFORMATION". He was purposely vague on the details of what our nation was going to be transformed into.

In the 1800's, Karl Marx also advocated the necessity of a "FUNDAMENTAL TRANSFORMATION". He described policies that would be necessary to bring about a transformation that would result in his version of a so-called fair and equitable society.

Author Don Jans outlines the policies advocated by Karl Marx. He doesn't tell you how to think; instead he gives you the facts so that you can determine if the "FUNDAMENTAL TRANSFORMATION" President Barack Obama has in mind is the vision put forth by Karl Marx.

We must decide for ourselves, based not on myth and innuendo, but straight facts.

of the Constitution and Marxism.
